

ing the past week. On Friday evening in a seven inning game the colored House of David team won 7 to 4. Worthington took a first inning lead with one run and held it until the third when the House of David team counted twice. The House of David team counted one run in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings each and led 5 to 1 when the locals went to bat in the sixth. The locals rallied in that inning and had Freeman, House of David pitcher, looking weak. John Donaldson replaced Freeman and Worthington was quickly retired, but three runs had come in to make the score 5 and 4.
