AVIATORS TO PLAY BALL.

Fort Slocum Men Also to Show at Dexter Park.

The Aviators from Garden City, re-enforced by several additions from Texas, will meet the Bushwicks at Dexter Park, near the Cypress Hills station of the elevated, this afternoon. In the second game the Bushwicks will tackle the Twenty-fifth Company, from Fort Slocum, which can call on Mike Regan of the Reds to pitch.

There will be a double header to-morrow between the Cuban Stars and the Royal Giants.

AVIATOR NINE TRIUMPHS.

Beats Bushwicks, Who Later Score Over Soldier Team.

Two encounters with service ball teams gave the Bushwicks an even break at Dexter Park yesterday afternoon. In the first game the home club was defeated by the Aviators from Garden City, 6 to 4. In the second game the Bushwicks won from the Twenty-fifth Company of Fort Slocum, 5 to 0. Bell of the old Dodgers pitched for the soldiers. To-day the Cuban Stars and the Royal Giants will play two games at Dexter Park. The scores:
